

I strongly oppose weakinging Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. Indiana's telephone privacy law prevents unsolicited telephone calls and unsolicited intrusions on family life. It is a refreshing change to answer the phone and not be solicited by a business looking to "sell" their services.